

Orange County Parks & Recreation

Enjoy a walk in your neighborhood park!

Young Pine Community Park Features Inclusive Playground

On January 28, Orange County Mayor Teresa Jacobs, District 4 Commissioner Jennifer Thompson, and the Orange County Parks Division opened Young Pine Community Park at 5201 Young Pine Rd., Orlando.

The 61-acre park's amenities include an inclusive playground, teen workout stations, a walking path and wetland trail, kayak launch, fishing pier, dog park, pavilion and multi-purpose fields.

The playground provides kids of all abilities with opportunities to participate in recreation and includes a ramp and space for a wheel chair, ADA swings suitable for ages up to 16 and tactile play area with Braille, bongos and tic-tac-toe.

February Event

February 25 - Free Movie in the Park: "Secret Life of Pets," at Wedgefield Park, 6 p.m.

Tibet-Butler Preserve's EcoSaturdays

February 18 - "Bee" My Valentine, 11 a.m., free program.

February 28 - Speak for the Trees, 11 a.m., free program.

Mayor Teresa Jacobs' 6th Annual Jazz in the Park Set for March 4

At Mayor Teresa Jacobs' 6th annual Jazz in the Park at Cypress Grove Park on Saturday, March 4, 4 - 7 p.m., community and service organizations that volunteer their time to make Orange County a better place to live will be recognized for their dedication to our community! Email parcs@ocfl.net for details.

STAY CONNECTED:

